THOSE PRIVATE BOXES

On the Patrol System Cause
Some Discussion

AT CITY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT

President Marshall Makes a Few Remarks in Regard to the Prosecution of Police Officers For Attempting to Do Their Duty—The West Case Will Be Taken to Supreme Court.

Council met in regular session last night with all members present except Kent, who is out of the city. The meeting was called to order at 10 minutes to 8 o'clock by the president, and the order was business from the word go.

The first thing on the list was a resolution declaring it necessary to improve Fenton street from Sheridan avenue to Ridgeway avenue. This resolution was passed, and one declaring it necessary to improve Nemo and Peach Tree alleys was then taken up and passed. Next came the resolution in regard to laying a four foot brick walk on Trentvale street, from Greasy street to the corporation line. This caused some discussion.

Peake—If you put a pavement on that street the proper width, there will be no street left. Do it right in the first place and widen the street.

Engineer George—I would like to have you leave that in the hands of the street committee, as I would like to take them out there again. The matter was then left in the hands of the street committee.

The following resolutions were then read for the second time: One declaring it necessary to improve First avenue, East End; one declaring it necessary to improve Jefferson street from Fifth to Sixth street; one declaring it necessary to improve Huston road or Bradshaw avenue from Walnut to Avondale street. The following came up for the first time: One to extend culvert over Tanyard run on Eighth street. This was referred to street committee. Then came the resolution declaring it necessary to relay sidewalks on Sixth street from Jefferson to Monroe.

Peake—I move that rules be suspended and that resolution be placed on its final passage. Seconded by Purinton, who said:

"That street has been an eyesore ever since the city has been paved."

Stewart—I am not satisfied that lowering the sidewalks would be the proper way.

Peake—I don't think there would be one along the street that would object now, as all the trees are dead.

Owen—If we were to pass that now we couldn't go ahead with the work anyhow. I am opposed to passing it under the suspension of the rules, but am not opposed to it when it has taken the proper course.

A vote was then taken on a suspension of the rules and was lost, Stewart, Marshall and Owens voting in the negative. The resolution was then referred to the street committee. The last resolution on the list was the one declaring it necessary to improve Mulberry street, and was referred to street committee without comment.

Under the head of new ordinances a vehicle ordinance was introduced by Mr. Purinton, which provides that all vehicles, not owned by farmers or gardeners, shall be licensed annually.

The mayor is to receive a fee of 25 cents for issuing licenses and the money to be paid into the hands of the city treasurer, to be used in keeping the paved streets in repair; and should there be any left over it is to be used in paying the city's share of new improvements. It also says that all vehicles shall be numbered and have a plate of 14 inches in size in plain view at all times.

Horwell moved it be placed in the hands of street committee and was seconded by Stewart.

Owens—I will offer an amendment to that motion that it be placed in the hands of a special committee, as one member of the street committee is out of town. There was no second to the amendment.

Purinton—I would suggest that Mr. Horwell be allowed to name the third man on that committee.

Permission was granted and he named Mr. Owen as the third man. The original motion was then passed.

A communication from the board of improvement was read, asking that the light on Jethro road be replaced, temporarily at least, on account of the extra bad condition of the road. Peake moved that the petition be granted and was seconded by Challis.

Owen—That motion is out of order for the reason that the finance committee was told to devise some means for new lights and they haven't done it yet.

Stewart—Haven't got the least objection to that light, but it is in the same line with 20 others. The light committee is running some $300 or $400 behind now.

Peake—If that light is laid off the other three ought to be laid off too.

Purinton—I am opposed to motion passing. We are already overdrawn and for that reason I can't entertain a motion. A vote was then taken and the motion was defeated.

Owen—I would like to ask who authorized the change of the light on Carpenter's run or California Hollow road. That light has been moved out one-fourth of a mile.

Peake—Mr. Owen is mistaken. That light was only moved out 250 feet. I consider it the best change that has been made in the city.

Owen—As I understand it, the majority of the light committee didn't know it was moved.

Challis then spoke of the recent fire on the hill, and said: "We would like to have council give us another reel. We have one reel, but it is low wheeled and very heavy. Would also like to have a 20 foot ladder and a pick axe. On motion of Mr. Peake the matter was left with fire committee."

Solicitor Clark was present, and said he desired to call attention to two matters. He said: "We are sued by Billingsley and Hickman in three cases, and these cases are set for trial at this term of court. The present judge is my assistant in the cases, and under these peculiar circumstances I would request assistant counsel. You are also no doubt aware that the circuit court has sustained the lower court in the West case. I have been advised to take the case to the supreme court. Think it would be advisable."

Owen, Purinton and Horwell were then appointed to engage council to help solicitor.

Stewart moved that Solicitor take the West case to supreme court. Some of the members wanted to know what the whole amount was now, and it was found that the judgment was $297 and costs $60.

Attorney Brookes was present, and council went into a committee of the whole to hear what he had to say. He said: "It might be well to inquire of solicitor, whether if supreme court reversed verdict and it would go back to common pleas, does he hope to get out of verdict?"

Clark—I think so. I deem it advisable to carry it up. A vote was then taken and carried unanimously and the case will go to the supreme court.

Challis wanted to know if the chair thought it would be advisable to reject all bids and readvertise for Avondale street bids, as all the bidders counted on bad weather. The chair said he thought not, as council has had some experience in this matter.

Owen—I would like to ask if we have a fund for keeping in repair private boxes. There are lots of private boxes, placed in the city by an official, that are hanging on city wires and poles and the city never received one cent revenue from them. In case those boxes get out of repair who pays for repairing them. Money received from those boxes hasn't reached the coffers yet.

Peake—Gill put those boxes in without expense to the city.

Purinton—Police committee should take the matter under consideration. Doesn't seem fair city should keep private boxes in repair. If there is no regulation made for repairs, recommend some annual rental to that effect. Move police committee investigate and report back at next meeting.

Peake—Mighty little council assesses potteries.

"You're out of order; don't talk taxes now," said Mr. Owen.

Peake—No sir, I am not, I'll talk taxes right now.

Marshall called Owen to the chair and said: "I see by the papers that two of our officers have been sued by Timothy Burns for false imprisonment. This is the second time officers have been prosecuted for attempting to do their duty. Move solicitor defend them at city's expense. I do this, not at the request of the officers, but as an act of justice. It seems to me when officers try to do their duty and fall from technical flaws in ordinance, they should be at no expense."

Challis—I understand that Burns was acquitted and officers have no case. I don't see why the city should spend money defending them.

Marshall—It was a flaw in the ordinance and not the officers' fault. If this thing continues, it will certainly be an heroic man who attempts to do his duty as an officer. Already we have had some experience in people prosecuting officers for trying to enforce the laws. I believe it is simple justice. The motion was then passed, Challis being the only member voting no.

Stewart then brought up the irregularities in the way the names were placed in the jury box, and an entire new venire will be placed in the box.

Marshall moved the city solicitor be instructed to correct recent technicalities in the saloon ordinances, whereby they won't stand in court, and to make them read the same as the state law. This was passed and council adjourned.

REV. J. C. TAGGART,

Pastor of the First U. P. Church, Talks to the School Board.

The following communication from the pen of one of East Liverpool's staunchest and most conservative citizens, speaks, in tones not to be misunderstood, on the question of the Bible in our public schools:

"EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—Permit me a word on the action of the board of education in reference to the paper presented to them by the Young People's Society Christian Endeavor of my church, as reported in last evening's papers. I wish to say, first of all, that I am not responsible for the paper, by way of dictation or suggestion. I knew nothing of it till it was read before the society. This was done near the close of the Sabbath evening meeting, when there was no time for discussion, or some forms of expression in it might have been changed. The general import of the paper met with my hearty approbation, and it was adopted by the unanimous vote of the society. The only regret I have in the matter is that the purpose of the committee and the desire of the society in having all the Young People's societies of the different churches to unite with them in presenting this, or a similar paper, to the board, was not carried out before our paper was given to the board. The other societies will please note that this was the intention of our committee, and that they had a meeting on Monday evening to arrange for it, when it was found that the paper was already before the board. We hope that they will still act in the way they think best, so that our board of education may know that not only the patriotic orders of the city, concerning whom certain members of the board have charged that they fail to read the Bible at home, but that the hosts of young Christians in our city, who do read it every day, are not satisfied with the action they have taken on the reading of the Bible in our schools.

Now a word as to the paper of our Young People's society. Is it disrespectful? Is it unworthy of recognition by our honorable board? Does it stab anything but the truth? Was not the paper adopted by the board, and given to the public in our daily papers, 'a dishonoring of God and His word and a misrepresentation of our Christian civilization?' Let that paper, adopted with only one dissenting vote, give the answer. We judge them only by the record they have made. While they profess to believe that the Bible is the inspired word of God, they go on to say that they do not think that it should be read as such in our schools. In reference to this, we can have some respect to their opinion, for while we believe it to be wrong, we recognize the fact that many good men have advocated the same views. But when they go on to say that they are willing that the Bible, or part of it, should come into our schools, but only on a level with the sacred writings of the pagan and false religions of the world, then we have a right to say, and if we speak of it at all we are bound to say, they have done dishonor to God and His word and have misrepresented the Christian sentiment of our people.

We cannot call their action heathenish, for the heathen would scarcely place the writings of other religions on a par with their own; but is it not in direct conflict with the honor due to the God of the Bible, who says: 'My glory will I not give to another; neither my praise to graven images?' I submit to the members of the board, who feel so indignant at the paper of our young people, that if they really believe that the Bible is God's word, and hence of supreme authority in all matters of life and morals, that their own conscience should tell them that they have been guilty of dishonoring that word, as well as misrepresenting the Christian sentiment of this community, and that every self-respecting Christian has a right to protest against their action, and to continue to do so till it is rescinded.

ANOTHER LUNATIC LOOSE.

The Salem News Loveth the Sallineville Banner.

The Salem News has descended very much in the journalistic scale, and has become an advocate of billingsgate. Such sentiments as are embraced in the article we quote below might have been expected from the Sallineville Banner, but certainly not from a paper which has been as clean as has the Salem News in the past. The following is the clipping from the Banner, under the head of "Thinks Like the News:"

"An open letter to Hon. P. M. Ashford is published in the East Liverpool News Review, and signed 'Seven voters who voted for you.' The letter reads like the ranting of an imbecile or crank, and we will bet dollars to doughnuts that the authors are either third party prohibitionists or Republican soreheads, who patronize the back door of saloons. Mr. Ashford is a better citizen and a better temperance man than any one who will rush into print with such rubbish."

If the Sallineville Banner is under the same control as it was two years ago, or if the present editor is running on the same basis, then he should know all about the interior of saloons and the best manner of obtaining entrance thereto, whether it be by front or back door, through the windows or down the chimney—anyway at all, in order to obtain a limited supply of benzine. He talks as does the average saloon keeper, and the Salem News "thinks as he does." Poor News. "Seven voters who voted for you" represent the best and staunchest element of Republicanism in Columbiana county, and it would be a insult to each of the seven, of the very deepest dye, to compare them to the lunatic who misrepresents the people through the Sallineville Banner, or to any one who "thinks like him."

OUR FIRE LADDIES.

Good Words For Them From a Well Pleased Citizen.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I wish, through the columns of your paper, to thank my neighbors and our fire department for their promptness during the burning of my barn on last Sabbath; and I wish to call the attention of our business men, and taxpayers in general, to the efficiency of our fire department and water service, as was well illustrated in this instance; and also to the advantage of having apparatus in different parts of the city. My barn was filled with hay, and the building was as dry as tinder, and the flames were bursting out all around before it was discovered; and yet, notwithstanding these facts, as well as that there was a strong wind at the time, so prompt was the response to the alarm, and so efficient was our water service, that the fire was not only kept from spreading to more valuable property, but was actually extinguished before that tinder pile was half consumed. It is well to make note of the fact that we have a fire department in which we can confide and upon which we can rely in times of danger. My sincere thanks to all.

JOHN A. GEORGE.

SOCIETY NOTES.

A Number of Very Enjoyable Social Events.

The Alvin club will give a dance in the city hall at Wellsville next Monday night.

There will be a leap year party at the residence of Ralph Scraggs, on Avondale street, tonight.

Miss Ida Nagle, of Sixth street, entertained friends on Monday evening.

ARE KICKING.

West End People Don't Like the Action of Council.

Residents of the West End don't think they are getting a square deal at the hands of council in regard to the light question. They say that they first presented a petition to council signed by 350 persons, asking that the light be placed there, and after it was turned down, got the board of improvements to recommend it, and now it meets with the same fate. They are of the opinion that if their light is to be taken away from them, council should do the same with the other three that were put up at the same time this one was ordered.

SEEKING FORTUNES.

Milton Moore and a Number of Others go West.

A party composed of Will Dickey, James Swaney and Elmer Ralston left on the morning train west today, accompanied by Milton Moore and his brother-in-law, Mr. Sharp and wife. All were bound for Colorado. Mr. Ralston will leave the party at Denver, where he goes in quest of health. Mr. Sharp and wife, of Irondale, will settle on a farm just outside of that city. The remainder of the party will proceed thence to the gold fields at Oura. Mrs. Moore, who was here with her husband, will remain a month longer.

SANOR INVESTIGATED

A Number of Angry Parents
Were Present.

NO GOOD RESULTS THE OUTCOME

The Investigation a Failure—Many Questions Asked by the Superintendent That Brought Forth Sharp Answers—The Teachers Not Vindicated.

The investigation of the charges made by East End parents was conducted personally yesterday afternoon and continued over until this morning by Superintendent Sanor, in the East End school. About 30 parents were present, and were subjected to a rigorous examination by Mr. Sanor. Many questions were asked and abrupt answers given by the parents, who do not entertain a kindly feeling for the superintendent. During the questioning Mrs. L. A. Vale was asked by Sanor, after she had given a number of answers, if she was now ready to admit that she had falsified in her statements. Mrs. Vale was so angered by this question that she could hardly make reply; collecting herself she denounced the superintendent vigorously; evidently his path is not one of roses. It is rumored that one father, whose child was ill used, threatened to do the superintendent bodily injury. Truant Officer Beardmore was present at the meeting last night. East End residents say that the investigation is a farce and that they are completely disgusted with it. They want to know by what authority Sanor has acted in that capacity. They said that they were under the impression that the board would be present or they would not have appeared. They state that in this instance Sanor arrogated to himself the positions of judge, jury, counsel and dictator, and that they will not submit to such foolishness.

Superintendent Sanor was seen in consultation with Miss Moore and Miss Griggs, the East End teachers so prominently identified with this matter. In response to a query from the reporter as to what the result of the investigation was, Sanor refused to talk.

It was learned later that the investigation did not reveal any satisfactory results that would materially aid the teachers who are accused. A report will be prepared by Mr. Sanor to be read at the meeting of the board next Monday night. Witnesses on both sides of the case will also be present to render testimony the same evening.

HONOR FOR TAYLER.

He Distinguishes Himself in the House Yesterday.

The Cleveland Leader of today says: "Representative Taylor, of the old McKinley district, won a place and a name for himself in the house this afternoon. He delivered a brilliant speech on the Tarsney-Van Horn contested election case, and was accorded the compliment of profound attention from the members, and an unlimited extension of time in which to conclude his remarks."

"Mr. Taylor is a member of elections committee No. 2, which has for several weeks been investigating the claims of Editor Van Horn, of the Kansas City Journal, to the seat now held in the house by John G. Tarsney. The case came on for debate in the house this afternoon, and it was during the debate that Mr. Taylor distinguished himself as one of the cleverest speakers on the floor. * * * The speech was a splendid effort and at the conclusion Mr. Taylor was warmly congratulated by his brother members."

MORE DRESSES CUT.

Miss Mollie Johnson Has Her Dress Cut In Shreds.

Jack the Slasher continues to get in his dastardly work. On Monday night Miss Mollie Johnson, daughter of the expressman, attended the picture sale of the lightning artist on Sixth street. She mingled with the crowd and did not have any intimation that her dress was cut until she arrived home. Then she discovered that the back of her dress was literally hanging in shreds. The perpetrator of the outrage is, as usual, unknown, and if he is caught he will receive a penalty that will prove a warning to all others.

Was Compromised.

The case of John Rigby, arrested on a delicate charge preferred by Miss Nettie Bud Doughty, in the court of Squire Manley, was compromised in court last night.

They Were Drunk.

Three men were seen trying to get into a West End butcher shop at 11:30 last night. They were very drunk, and evidently didn't know what they were doing.

While they profess to believe that the Bible is the inspired word of God, they go on to say that they do not think that it should be read as such in our schools. In reference to this, we can have some respect to their opinion, for while we believe it to be wrong, we recognize the fact that many good men have advocated the same views. But when they go on to say that they are willing that the Bible, or part of it, should come into our schools, but only on a level with the sacred writings of the pagan and false religions of the world, then we have a right to say, and if we speak of it at all we are bound to say, they have done dishonor to God and His word and have misrepresented the Christian sentiment of our people.

We cannot call their action heathenish, for the heathen would scarcely place the writings of other religions on a par with their own; but it is not in direct conflict with the honor due to the God of the Bible, who says: "My glory will I not give to images; neither my praise to graven images?" I submit to the members of the board, who feel so indignant at the paper of our young people, that if they really believe that the Bible is God's word, and hence of supreme authority in all matters of life and morals, that their own conscience should tell them that they have been guilty of dishonoring that word, as well as misrepresenting the Christian sentiment of this community, and that every self-respecting Christian has a right to protest against their action, and to continue to do so till it is rescinded.

ANOTHER LUNATIC LOOSE.

The Salem News Loveth the Salineville Banner.

The Salem News has descended very much in the journalistic scale, and has become an advocate of billingsgate. Such sentiments as are embraced in the article we quote below might have been expected from the Salineville Banner, but certainly not from a paper which has been as clean as has the Salem News in the past. The following is the clipping from the Banner, under the head of "Thinks Like the News:"

"An open letter to Hon. P. M. Ashford is published in the East Liverpool News Review, and signed 'Seven voters who voted for you.' The letter reads like the ranting of an imbecile or crank, and we will bet dollars to doughnuts that the authors are either third party prohibitionists or Republican soreheads, who patronize the back door of saloons. Mr. Ashford is a better citizen and a better temperance man than any one who will rush into print with such rubbish."

If the Salineville Banner is under the same control as it was two years ago, or if the present editor is running on the same basis, then he should know all about the interior of saloons and the best manner of obtaining entrance thereto, whether it be by front or back door, through the windows or down the chimney—anyway at all, in order to obtain a limited supply of benzine. He talks as does the average saloon keeper, and the Salem News "thinks as he does." Poor News. "Seven voters who voted for you" represent the best and staunchest element of Republicanism in Columbiana county, and it would be an insult to each of the seven, of the very deepest dye, to compare them to the lunatic who misrepresents the people through the Salineville Banner, or to any one who "thinks like him."

OUR FIRE LADDIES.

Good Words For Them From A Well Pleased Citizen.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I wish, through the columns of your paper, to thank my neighbors and our fire department for their promptness during the burning of my barn on last Sabbath; and I wish to call the attention of our business men, and taxpayers in general, to the efficiency of our fire department and water service, as well as well illustrated in this instance; and also to the advantage of having apparatus in different parts of the city. My barn was filled with hay, and the building was as dry as tinder, and the flames were bursting out all around before it was discovered; and yet, notwithstanding these facts, as well as that there was a strong wind at the time, so prompt was the response to the alarm, and so efficient was our water service, that the fire was not only kept from spreading to more valuable property, but was actually extinguished before that tinder pile was half consumed. It is well to make note of the fact that we have a fire department in which we can confide and upon which we can rely in times of danger. My sincere thanks to all.

SOCIETY NOTES.

A Number of Very Enjoyable Social Events.

The Alvin club will give a dance in the city hall at Wellsville next Monday night.

There will be a leap year party at the residence of Ralph Scraggs, on Avondale street, tonight.

Miss Ida Nagle, of Sixth street, entertained friends on Monday evening.

ARE KICKING.

West End People Don't Like the Action of Council.

Residents of the West End don't think they are getting a square deal at the hands of council in regard to the light question. They say that they first presented a petition to council signed by 350 persons, asking that the light be placed there, and after it was turned down, got the board of improvements to recommend it, and now it meets with the same fate. They are of the opinion that if their light is to be taken away from them, council should do the same with the other three that were put up at the same time this one was ordered.

SEEKING FORTUNES.

Milton Moore and a Number of Others go West.

A party composed of Will Dickey, James Swaney and Elmer Ralston left on the morning train west today, accompanied by Milton Moore and his brother-in-law, Mr. Sharp and wife. All were bound for Colorado. Mr. Ralston will leave the party at Denver, where he goes in quest of health. Mr. Sharp and wife, of Irondale, will settle on a farm just outside of that city. The remainder of the party will proceed thence to the gold fields at Oura. Mrs. Moore, who was here with her husband, will remain a month longer.

SANOR INVESTIGATED

A Number of Angry Parents Were Present.

NO GOOD RESULTS THE OUTCOME

The investigation of the charges made by East End parents was conducted personally yesterday afternoon and continued over until this morning by Superintendent Sanor, in the East End school. About 30 parents were present, and were subjected to a rigorous examination by Mr. Sanor. Many questions were asked and abrupt answers given by the parents, who do not entertain a kindly feeling for the superintendent. During the questioning Mrs. L. A. Vale was asked by Sanor, after she had given a number of answers, if she was now ready to admit that she had falsified in her statements. Mrs. Vale was so angered by this question that she could hardly make reply; collecting herself she denounced the superintendent vigorously; evidently his path is not one of roses. It is rumored that one father, whose child was ill used, threatened to do the superintendent bodily injury. Truant Officer Beardmore was present at the meeting last night. East End residents say that the investigation is a farce and that they are completely disgusted with it. They want to know by what authority Sanor has acted in that capacity. They said that they were under the impression that the board would be present or they would not have appeared. They state that in this instance Sanor arrogated to himself the positions of judge, jury, counsel and dictator, and that they will not submit to such foolishness.

Superintendent Sanor was seen in consultation with Miss Moore and Miss Griggs, the East End teachers prominently identified with this matter. In response to a query from the reporter as to what the result of the investigation was, Sanor refused to talk.

It was learned later that the investigation did not reveal any satisfactory results that would materially aid the teachers who are accused. A report will be prepared by Mr. Sanor to be read at the meeting of the board next Monday night. Witnesses on both sides of the case will also be present to render testimony the same evening.

HONOR FOR TAYLOR.

He Distinguishes Himself in the House Yesterday.

The Cleveland Leader of today says: "Representative Taylor, of the old McKinley district, won a place and a name for himself in the house this afternoon. He delivered a brilliant speech on the Tarsney-Van Horn contested election case, and was accorded the compliment of profound attention from the members, and an unlimited extension of time in which to conclude his remarks."

"Mr. Taylor is a member of elections committee No. 2, which has for several weeks been investigating the claims of Editor Van Horn, of the Kansas City Journal, to the seat now held in the house by John G. Tarsney. The case came on for debate in the house this afternoon, and it was during the debate that Mr. Taylor distinguished himself as one of the cleverest speakers on the floor. * * * The speech was a splendid effort and at the conclusion Mr. Taylor was warmly congratulated by his brother members."

MORE DRESSES CUT.

Miss Mollie Johnson Has Her Dress Cut In Shreds.

Jack the Slasher continues to get in his dastardly work. On Monday night Miss Mollie Johnson, daughter of the expressman, attended the picture sale of the lightning artist on Sixth street. She mingled with the crowd and did not have any intimation that her dress was cut until she arrived home. Then she discovered that the back of her dress was literally hanging in shreds. The perpetrator of the outrage is, as usual, unknown, and if he is caught he will receive a penalty that will prove a warning to all others.

Was Compromised.

The case of John Rigby, arrested on a delicate charge preferred by Miss Nettie Bud Doughty, in the court of Squire Manley, was compromised in court last night.

They Were Drunk.

Three men were seen trying to get into a West End butcher shop at 11:30 last night. They were very drunk, and evidently didn't know what they were doing.

TALKED IMPROVEMENTS

An Estimate of the Cost to Improve Jethro Street.

ONE RESOLUTION WAS AMENDED

Many Improvements Recommended That Are Badly Needed—Plumbers Will Have to Get Permits to Excavate the Street. A Volume of Business Transacted.

The board of improvements met last night in Clerk Hanley's office with all members present with the exception of Kent, who is out of the city.

The first business before the board was an amendment to the resolution to improve Mulberry, so that it would read, "to pave" from Pennsylvania avenue to the railroad track.

The engineer was then instructed to draw up a resolution declaring it necessary that all pavements on Sixth street, from Jefferson to Monroe streets, be laid to the proper grade.

An estimate was then given of the cost of improving Jethro street from Sixth street to the school house, by grading, paving, setting curb and laying sidewalks. The cost of such improvement was estimated at $21,000, and as the board didn't want to recommend the expenditure of such a large sum of money without any petitions, it was laid over.

The engineer was then instructed to draw up a resolution to present to council, declaring it necessary to extend the culvert over Tan Yard run. In order that the roadway on Eighth street may be widened. This is the culvert where the fatal street car accident occurred.

A resolution was then passed asking council to replace the light on Jethro street that they had moved some time ago.

Considerable discussion was had over the best manner to prevent plumbers from tearing up the streets, and the ordinance on the subject was looked up. Section 327 says that no excavations of the streets shall be made without first having a permit, and that the permit shall be returned when the work is completed. Commissioner Welsh was then ordered to see hereafter that the law was complied with, and to make complaint against anyone violating it, and let the mayor deal with them. The law also states that any citizen seeing such violation, can report same and have the offender fined.

COLONEL GYGER.

He Was Here on Important Business Last Night.

What was he here for? What did he do? Why such an air of secrecy? These are questions unanswered. The colonel was here, but he pledged his subordinates, his lieutenants, to absolute secrecy, and they are as close-mouthed as clams. Rumor has it that the late election for captain was the all important subject on deck. What will the harvest be? Will the captain elect be captain for keeps? Was the election conducted on a military basis? Was there something rotten in Denmark? Has the affair been smoothly adjusted, and will John H. Simms be duly recognized as captain and bring the company up to the desired standard? Who knows? Who dares to tell?

We have it from reliable authority that Colonel Gyger did not go near the armory last night. There was a jubilee there, however, some for and some against the newly elected captain. Words and actions were indulged in, which an onlooker says were simply outrageous. Why was Colonel Gyger not present? He was in the city.

WHAT THE TRUSTEES THINK.

Views Expressed by Two Trustees in Regard to the Light Plant.

At the meeting of the water works trustees and the committee appointed by council held last Friday night to consider the light question. Mr. Mettsch said: "I am in favor of a plant upon the following conditions. That it be self supporting through its own income. The city to pay for light as at present until the plant has private consumers enough to support it. The city light bill to be reduced as the private consumers increase, and after the consumers increase enough, the city to have light free. I also favor a sinking fund to redeem the bonds when due."

Mr. Kerr said: "This thing came to me in the nature of a surprise and I have had no time to give it careful consideration. I favor a conservative course and slow action until every detail of cost and liability are looked into."

Messrs. Stewart, Mettsch and Morley were then appointed to ascertain the cost of machinery to maintain a plant of a capacity of 100 arc lights with a reserve of 50 more.

The Boom Snapped.

The derrick erected by the bridge people seems to be an ill-fated one. This morning while hoisting a vessel of earth from the excavation over to the car, the boom of the derrick snapped in twain. A new one was immediately ordered.

SACRED CONCERT.

There Was a Light Attendance at the Grand.

There was not, by any manner of means, as large an audience present at the Grand last night as there should have been, when the fact that the proceeds were to go to charity is taken into consideration. A number of the to-be performers also disappointed the management of the affair. Professor Walters sent a letter of regret, stating that he had injured one of his fingers. Professor Gotschall was ill, and this broke the double quartet of the Young Men's Christian association. Miss L. Bessie Ashbaugh could not be present, and Miss Emma Maple did not sing.

Reverend Whitehead opened with prayer, after which Manley's band gave a selection in their usual charming manner. Miss Pearl Sebring delighted the audience with a beautiful solo. Miss Laura Nicholls won an encore on the piano. Miss Edith McCord gave a recitation in superb voice and manner, and won the heartiest of applause from her well pleased audience. "Lead Kindly Light," by our townsman, Will L. Thompson, was rendered by a quartet composed of Miss Sloane, Miss Wildblood, Mr. Hasson and Mr. McLean, and the rendition won them a hearty recall. Miss McClain was called out after a splendidly executed solo, after which the Little Girls' band, led by Mills Bennett, made merry music. Miss Florence Everson, of Wellsville, gave a solo which was warmly applauded, the listeners calling the lady before the curtain. Miss McLean, Miss Bowman, Mr. Hasson and Mr. Swan composed a quartet which met with full appreciation. The entertainment closed with a selection by Haynes band, artistically rendered.

Those in charge of affairs deserve warm commendation for their earnest work in behalf of sweet charity.

TO INSPECT THE OHIO.

The Committee Appointed Has Set the Date.

The committee appointed to inspect the Ohio river from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, will leave Washington March 15, via the Baltimore and Ohio line. From Fairchance the committee will go over to Morgantown, the head of navigation, on the Monongahela. There a steamer will be taken to Pittsburgh, where a banquet will be spread on Monday night. The Virginia will take the committee and prominent rivermen and citizens down the river to Wheeling by daylight, where a banquet will be tendered the visitors on Tuesday evening. Continuing down the river a third banquet will be given at Parkersburg. It is not yet decided whether the committee will go through to Cincinnati. It is to be hoped that this city will see the advantage of river improvements and invite the committee to spend a short time here.

REVELATION

To Women Tomorrow Night at Brunt's Opera House.

Veno will deliver his famous lecture, to ladies only, entitled, "Maiden, Wife and Mother." Don't fail to be present. The most startling lecture ever delivered to ladies only. Nothing will be said to offend the most fastidious. Commences at 8 p. m. Every lady entering the hall will be presented with the beautiful song entitled, "When Great Veno Came." Admission, 10c.

A Des Moines woman who has been troubled with frequent colds, concluded to try an old remedy in a new way, and accordingly took a tablespoonful (four times the usual dose) of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy just before going to bed. The next morning she found that her cold had almost entirely disappeared. During the day she took a few doses of the remedy (one teaspoonful at a time) and at night again took a tablespoonful before going to bed, and on the following morning awoke free from all symptoms of the cold. Since then she has, on several occasions, used this remedy in like manner, with the same good results, and is much elated over her recovery of so quick a way of curing a cold. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Read Veno's Ad.

You will find it on fourth page. Also, on same page his local to women. You will find in them matters of special import, which you cannot fail to neglect.

O. W. G. Hardman, sheriff of Tyler county, W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's pain balm, and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. TALKED TO BANKERS.

Secretary Carlisle at a Conference in New York.

ROUND MONEY CAMPAIGN PLANS

Under Discussion—Another Conference to Be Held Tomorrow Afternoon—The Secretary Says the Business Outlook Is Greatly Improved—A Banquet Given.

New York, Feb. 25.—Secretary Carlisle has held a conference at the Fifth Avenue hotel with some New York bankers.

Those present were: Louis Windmuller, Isaac Straus, president, G. G. Williams, of the Chemical National bank; President John P. Townsend of the Bowery Savings bank; Charles Stuart Smith and Gustav H. Schwab, Henry Hentz, J. Kennedy Tod and Henry W. Cannon of the Chase National bank.

At the conclusion of the conference it was stated that only the members of sound currency committee of the chamber of commerce had been invited to meet the secretary.

Gustav H. Schwab said that the time had been devoted to a general exchange concerning the financial situation and the best methods of carrying on the sound money campaign.

Mr. Schwab added that the only definite outcome of the conference was that it was decided to call a special meeting of the sound currency committee of the number to be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Henry Hentz, chairman of the full financial committee of the chamber of commerce, said: "The object of the conference was to discuss the best means of keeping the gold reserve intact, to receive suggestions which might be made respecting a policy to restore business confidence and also to talk over the silver question. Further than that I can say nothing."

From other sources it was learned that views on the money outlook were interchanged. Secretary Carlisle inquired with much interest as to prospective shipments of gold. He was told that no heavy shipments to Europe were expected.

Secretary Carlisle, in a short talk said that he believed that both political parties would adopt "sound currency" planks in their platforms; he was confident that this course would be followed by the Democrats. He said that reports from all sections, showed that the movement for "sound money" was gaining in popular favor.

The late popular loan, he added, was fine evidence of confidence. Gold had been brought forth from hiding places, as was shown by the offer of gold coined at Dahlonega, Ga., a mint long ago closed.

He complimented the chamber of commerce for its energetic work. The outlook for business, he said, had greatly improved. With good crops for the coming season and a strong, united movement for "sound currency," business prosperity would be assured.

Secretary Carlisle was the guest of honor at a dinner given by C. C. Baldwin at the Metropolitan club last night. A reception to which 500 invitations have been issued will be given at the Manhattan club tonight.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 26.

For President, WILLIAM MCKINLEY, OF OHIO.

God or Mammon. Which?

God commands that we search the scriptures.

SATAN desires that the scriptures shall not be searched.

ONE of our representatives at Columbus, P. M. Ashford, will be and should be condemned for his attempt to increase the salaries of officials. The people, the taxpayers, are utterly weary of such unjust measures, and Mr. Ashford's political career will be nipped in the bud in consequence.

PRESIDENT of Council, K. J. Marshall, did the right thing at the right time when, at last night's council meeting, he made a motion that the council stand by Officers Earl and Jennings in the prosecution of the latter roundsmen by Saloonist Timothy Burns. To the honor of council, the motion was almost unanimous, James Challis casting the only vote against it.

JOHN N. TAYLOR says that the members of the Christian endeavor society of the First U. P. church, of East Liverpool, are either disrespectful or ignorant, and accuses them of using indecent language. Strong talk, John, and the facts in the case do not bear you out. The said members respect God and His inspired word and fear not man. Come down off your high horse, John, and render a manly apology to the endeavorers, and you will feel better when you endeavor to take peaceful slumber, as you will have the consciousness of an evil in a measure atoned for.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

The words of Mr. Kerr, of the water works trustees, are words of wisdom, and merit warm commendation. In speaking on the question of the city of East Liverpool owing and controlling the light plant, Mr. Kerr said, as quoted EXCLUSIVELY in the News Review of yesterday: "I favor a conservative course and slow action, until every detail of cost and liability are looked into." Mr. Kerr has the misfortune to train in the ranks of Democracy. But it is possible for a man to be a Democrat and yet be a good, brainy, conservative and law-abiding, home-loving citizen. This may sound strange to the average Republican, who must remember that there are Democrats and Democrats—up-town and down-town Democrats. Brainy and conservative Democratic Kerr does not rush off at a tangent and embrace every new fad-de-rol which creeps in the supposititious brain of the down-town Democrat. Mr. Kerr wants and will have both sides of the question. He wants facts and figures, and he wants them from a reliable source. He wants to know "every detail of cost and liability." In other words, he wants to know what the site for the light plant will cost. What the expense will be for erecting a suitable building on said site. What amount of money must be expended for machinery. The actual cost of wires, poles and all other supplies. The quantity of water consumed annually. The number of hands employed about the plant and the salaries required to be paid out to them. The amount of fuel to be consumed annually. In fact every detail and expenditure required in the building and maintenance of such a plant, and then the amount of light furnished to the city, and the income to be derived from outside consumers. Then comes in the stern logic of receipts and expenditures, arrayed against the amount of outlay now necessary on the part of the city, paid to an individual enterprise, and Mr. Kerr will then be able to tell the city of East Liverpool whether or not it will pay this city to turn her own light plant. The News Review, backed by a host of taxpayers, desires to know, beyond a doubt, whether or not such a plant will be a good thing for the city. If so, under the logic of business calculations, bring 'em on your plant. If not, kill the measure beyond successful resurrection. So mote it be. Turn on the light.

AN OVATION AT HIS HEARING.

The Judge Tries to Impress the Spectators with the Gravity of the Offense, but Fails—Wild Scene Outside the Police Court.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The British government is well aware that, though Dr. Jameson is brought to England from the Transvaal for trial as a criminal, he is in the popular eye a hero and his raid into the Transvaal, far from being viewed as a piratical enterprise, is looked upon as a chivalrous and knightly adventure to succor hard pressed friends and fellow countrymen.

It was for this reason that the crowds about Bow Police station were kept waiting and everything possible done to make a mystery of the movements of Dr. Jameson. It was hoped the ardor of his admirers would be cooled by the long wait and that the noisy mob waiting to cheer him would grow weary and depart. But all this strategy was without avail.

Dr. Jameson was brought on a tug to Erith on the Thames, and was then conducted by a further roundabout and obscure route to Bow street police court, after many hours of delay. His entrance to the courtroom was the signal for a remarkable scene. All rose and uncovered upon his appearance, giving him hearty cheers. It was in vain that the court officer sought to quell the demonstration. The effort to do so seemed a little more than cursory.

The charge lodged against Dr. Jameson and 14 of his fellow-prisoners was then declared to be a "warring against a friendly state," for their invasion of the Transvaal republic.

Mr. Henry Matthews, Q. C., who was home secretary in the former Salisbury government, announced that in view of the importance of the case the law officers of the crown would conduct the prosecution. Formal evidence was then presented as to the circumstances of the arrest. The lawyers who were in court on behalf of the accused men asked that their personal recognizances be accepted for bail.

Sir John Bridge, the chief magistrate of the Bow Street Police court, from his place on the bench said that before deciding upon the bail, he felt that he ought to observe that in his opinion a graver offense could not be charged against men, than that charged against the prisoners. It was a crime of the highest possible gravity, the magistrate continued, and it must be so treated by everyone, when they consider that the commission of such an offense might create a war between countries previously friendly. The circumstances of the present case, he added, were most peculiar. He felt satisfied that the prisoners would appear when wanted. He therefore accepted their personal recognizances, and fixed their bail at £2,000 ($10,000) each.

Sir John Bridge then addressed the prisoners personally in a grave and serious vein. He begged them for their own sakes and for the sake of the good faith of the country, to refrain from appearing where public excitement would be roused by their presence or in any way lending themselves to the disturbance of the peace.

Notwithstanding the seriousness of Sir John's tone the withdrawal of the defendants from the courtroom was accompanied by a renewed outbreak of cheering. When the courtroom had become quiet again, Sir John Bridge said sternly: "That sort of thing might bring the name of England into contempt."

Meanwhile a still wilder scene was being enacted outside the courtroom. Dr. Jameson's appearance outside the building was the signal for a wild outbreak of cheering, throwing of hats in the air, and a tremendous pressure to get up within reach of the popular idol. Dr. Jameson was quickly hemmed in by a surging throng who apparently sought to carry him, and he made his way through them with great difficulty. When he finally reached his cab, he was hurriedly driven off without waiting to make any sign of acknowledgment of the popular ovation.

Gave Him a Bad Gold Brick.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—A well-dressed man, 40 years of age, who is known by the names of Edward Thompson, Charles Gordon and Addison Mills, is under arrest in this city on a charge of giving two worthless gold bricks to M. G. Ritchie, a Napa county vineyardist, as security for a loan of $5,000.

A Pawnbroker Seized and Robbed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Dennis Ferguson, a pawnbroker of Long Island City, has been seized in his shop by four men. He was bound and gagged, after which the men gathered up $10,000 worth of diamonds and other jewelry and made off with it.

Boles Will Decline.

BOLD BANK BANDITS.

One Raid In Texas, Another In Arkansas.

LEAD PUMPED AT THE OFFICIALS.

Cashier Dorsey Killed at Wichita Falls, Tex., and Bookkeeper Longford Shot. An Official Mortally Wounded at Warren, Ark., and Another Shot.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., Feb. 26.—Two robbers have entered the City National bank of this city and demanded the money of Cashier Dorsey, who resisted them. Shooting began, resulting in the death of Cashier Frank Dorsey and the wounding of Bookkeeper P. P. Langford. Langford's wounds are not serious, being slight flesh wounds. The robbers secured only a few hundred dollars in silver. They then mounted their horses and made a run for their lives. By this time many of the citizens had armed themselves and a small battle took place. One of the robbers' horses was shot from under him, and it is believed the robber was wounded.

He mounted behind his partner and about one mile from town met a farmer in a buggy. They took his horse and made a break for the hills. In the meantime the citizens had secured horses and at last reports they were within a quarter of a mile of the robbers, with good prospects of overtaking them. Captain McDonald and his rangers are on the trail. It is believed a hanging bee will take place if they are caught. A reward of $1,000 is offered by the Panhandle and City National banks for their capture, dead or alive.

The robbers are corralled in a large thicket in the middle of a pasture, nine miles from town. The thicket is surrounded by 25 or 30 determined men who are fully armed and escape is almost impossible. They have sent in for 36 additional men, and they have just started. Foster Crawford, one of the robbers who killed Cashier Dorsey, is said to be a noted desperado. It is also reported that one of the famous Christian gang was the other man.

TWO BANK OFFICIALS SHOT.

Bold, but Unsuccessful Attempt to Rob a Bank In Arkansas.

WARREN, Ark., Feb. 26.—A daring, but unsuccessful, attempt has been made to rob the Merchants and Planters' bank of this place. The men entered the bank, and two of them went behind the enclosure where Mr. Adair, the cashier, was seated in conversation with Messrs. T. M. Goodwin and D. W. Sutton. Their first salutation was: "Hold up your hands." Mr. Adair sprang for his pistol when the men commenced shooting, and Mr. Goodwin received what is thought to be a mortal wound, and Mr. Adair was shot through the shoulder. He returned the fire, and evidently wounded one of the men, as when he rode off he was seen to be bleeding.

The firing of the pistols startled the citizens who came running from all directions, and the robbers were forced to retire without accomplishing their object. As they rode out of town they kept up a fusillade of shots and went out northwest of town.

ONLY THE LEADERS HELD.

Most of the Steamer Bermuda Filibusters Released.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Commissioner Shields has ordered the release of all the men arrested in connection with the Bermuda filibustering expedition with the exception of General Garcia, Captain Hughes and two other leaders. These have been held on bail for trial March 3.

The prisoners were released because their arrest was in violation of the instructions sent out from Washington last week, by Attorney General Harmon, that suspicion merely was not sufficient ground for arrest, but that evidence of intention to violate the neutrality laws was required.

The expedition was the largest that has yet been fitted out in the interest of the Cuban revolutionist. It came to grief by the seizure, in this harbor, of the steamer Bermuda, flying the British flag. The steamship lighter J. S. T. Stranahan, which was loaded with arms and ammunition, was also seized, as were the tugs McCaldin, which had carried about 60 Cuban filibusters aboard the Bermuda. United States marshals and Pinkerton detectives, the latter in the employ of the Spanish government, aided in the seizure and took the filibusters ashore.

THE SOUND MONEY FIGHT.

Carlisle Predicts That Democratic Monetary Differences Will Be Settled.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Secretary Carlisle was a guest of the Manhattan club last night, and many conspicuous in both parties were present to meet him. Mr. Carlisle, at the banquet table, said:

"I wanted to be here tonight because I knew that your halls would be thronged and your tables surrounded by old-fashioned Democrats who have never repudiated, and I am sure never will repudiate the principals of their party, sound money, just taxation, economy in the expenditure of the public moneys, honesty and fidelity in the discharge of official duty, and the preservation of individual liberty and the rights of the states.

"Now it is proposed to condemn this ancient democratic policy, at least so far as it relates to the maintenance of a sound and stable currency, by authorizing the free coining of silver at a ratio which shall make the legal tender silver dollar worth about one-half as much as the legal tender gold dollar."

The secretary said that the time was rapidly approaching when this party difference would be settled by the action of a majority.

Three Victims of Coal Oil.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 26.—Three children are dead and one lying at Johns Hopkins hospital in a precarious condition, as the result of the fire caused by the lighting of coal oil in the house of Frederick Rose.

TARIFF DEALT A BLOW

The Senate Refuses to Take Up the Bill.

SHERMAN PLEADS FOR ACTION.

He shames the Senate For Its Inaction and Asks That the Bill Be Taken Up and Perfected—Wrangle Between Morrill and Teller.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The resolution of Mr. Morrill, chairman of the finance committee, in the senate to take up the tariff bill was a distinct surprise.

Mr. Morrill began with a brief statement as to the complication on the tariff bill. He said it had been apparent for many months that there was a deficiency in the revenues. During every month since the present tariff bill went into effect there had been a deficiency. The deficiency up to this time reached $20,000,000. If we went on at the same rate the deficiency would be $30,000,000 for the year. It was certainly manifest that congress should do something to relieve the treasury and assist in the revival of business. Therefore, concluded the senator, he moved that the senate proceed to the consideration of the tariff bill.

The rollcall proceeded with many interruptions in order to allow senators to pair. The announcement that Mr. Morrill's motion had been defeated—yeas 22, nays 33—was not unexpected in view of the vote some days ago.

The detailed vote was as follows:

Yeas—Republicans—Aldrich, Allison, Baker, Brown, Burrows, Cannon, Clark, Cullum, Davis, Gear, Hale, Hansbrough, Hatch, Lodge, Mitchell (Or.), Morrill, Nelson, Perkins, Proctor, Quay, Sherman, Shoup—22.

Nays—Republicans—Cannon, Carter, Duffels, Mantle and Teller—3. Democrats—Bacon, Bate, Berry, Caffery, Call, Chilton, Cockrell, George, Gordon, Gray, Harris, Hill, Lindsay, Martin, Morgan, Palmer, Pasco, Roach, Turpie, Vest, Walcott and White—23. Populists—Allen, Butler, Jones (Nev.), Kyle, Peffer and Sizoo—4.

The pairs were as follows: the names of those who would have voted aye being given first:

Chandler with Murphy, McBride with Smith, Hoar with Pugh, Warren with Jones (Ark.), Wilson with Lrly, McMillan with Blackburn, Pritchard with Blanchard, Wetmore with Voorhees, Pastore with Gibson, French with Gorman, Squire with Daniels, Wolcott with Brice, Platt with Vilas, Elkins with Faulkner, Sewell with Mitchell (Wis.), Thurston with Tillman.

As soon as the vote was announced Mr. Morrill again addressed the senate. It was now evident, he said, that the Republican party was in the majority in the United States senate. A chorus of derisive laughter came from the Democratic side of the chamber at this statement. Mr. Morrill, not noticing this interruption, proceeded to state that in his judgment the tariff bill was defeated by a vote including five silver Republicans and six Populists. There was no substantial change in the present and former votes. It settled all questions of doubt. The senator said the Republican members of the finance committee would be ready at any time before congress adjourned to come to the relief of the treasury.

"In answer to this bill," continued Mr. Morrill, "I do not think it would be come to ask any further time."

Mr. Teller secured recognition as soon as Mr. Morrill concluded. The Colorado senator referred scornfully to the assertion of Mr. Morrill that there was not a Republican majority in the senate. That was a fact that had long been understood. This statement, said Mr. Teller, came with a motion out of time and out of place, to proceed with the tariff bill. The senator from Vermont (Morrill) declared that certain senators on the Republican side of the chamber are no longer members of the Republican party. The senator from Montana (Carter), who was in the judgment of Mr. Teller—as good a Republican as the senator from Vermont (Morrill), had moved to recommit the bill.

"I charge," proceeded Mr. Teller, "and I will seek to prove later, that this tariff bill was never presented with any purpose of passing it."

"If the senator from Vermont," continued Mr. Teller, "thinks he can embarrass those who have been as devoted to the Republican party as he has been, then he is mistaken. I will follow my own judgment on this question. And I will stay in the Republican party in spite of the senator from Vermont."

This sham effort to pass a tariff bill, added Mr. Teller, was degrading to the American senate. It was degrading to those who took part in it.

Mr. Morrill interrupted to say: "I have read no man out of the Republican party."

Mr. Teller responded that the whole spirit of Mr. Morrill's course was in this line of driving out of the party all those who do not agree with him. It was the same intolerance shown by the metropolitan press, which had already read the silver Republicans out of the party.

Mr. Sherman (O.) said the bill was not a party measure; it merely was designed to raise $40,000,000 of revenue, enough to meet the current expenses of the government. The senator said he would vote for any tax which may be proposed, whether by Democrat, Republican or Populist, if it supplied sufficient revenue; whether it was a tax on tea, coffee or anything. "It is a disgrace," said he, "that we are now expending $30,000,000 a year more than the receipts of the government and that congress now in session with both houses fully armed with power to furnish the revenue, is idle and refuses to act."

The senator then deplored the condition which caused the issue of $263,000,000 of bonds by the present administration, made necessary, he said, by a deficiency in revenue and doubt whether under this process of financing we should be able to maintain the standard of our money in this country. Said he:

"The other house, having sent us ever so faintly a bill, let us take it up and if it is not right, let us make it right and send it back to the house and we will have a ready concurrence. But for us to adjourn with these deficiencies accruing more and more is, as I say, not a mainly action to be taken by either of the great parties, or by any party that is responsible for it."

Mr. Harris asked: "Why does not the senator from Ohio advise the treasury department to coin the $55,000,000 of seigniorage and the balance of the silver that lies in the treasury idle and utilize it to answer the purpose of the treasury?"

Mr. Sherman replied: "That has been tried and tested, and if ever that question met its final solution it was in the house of representatives freshly elected by the people, whereby a majority of almost 2 to 1, the judgment of the house of representatives, the representatives of the people from equal and exact districts throughout the country, pronounced their denunciation of the most foolish and dangerous policy of departing from the now lawful standards of money in the country."

Senators Platt and Aldrich, in answer to direct questions from Senator Allen, announced emphatically that the Republicans would not accept a tariff bill with a free silver attachment.

Mr. Frye (Rep., Me.) took the floor and declared that the tariff bill was as dead as Julius Caesar. Business interests demanded that the statement be made emphatically that the bill was dead. He hoped it would never be heard from again and that the responsibility should rest where it belonged.

Mr. Morgan then resumed his speech on the Cuban resolutions.

TARIFF DEALT A BLOW

The Senate Refuses to Take Up the Bill.

SHERMAN PLEADS FOR ACTION.

He Shames the Senate For Its Inaction and Asks That the Bill Be Taken Up and Perfect—Wrangle Between Morrill and Teller.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The resolution of Mr. Morrill, chairman of the finance committee, in the senate to take up the tariff bill was a distinct surprise.

Populists—Allen, Butler, Jones (Nev.), Kyle, Peffer and Stewart—6.

The pairs were as follows: The names of those who would have voted aye being given first:

Chandler with Murphy, McBride with Smith, Hoar with Hugh Warren with Jones (Ark.), Wilson with Fry, McMillan with Blackburn, Pritchard with Blanchard, Wetmore with Voorhees, Pettigrew with Gibson, Frye with Gorman, Squire with Daniels, Wolcott with Bruce, Platt with Vilas, Elkins with Frazier, Sewell with Mitchell (Wis.), Thurston with Tillman.

As soon as the vote was announced Mr. Morrill again addressed the senate. It was now evident, he said, that the Republican party was in the minority in the United States senate. Mr. Teller secured recognition as soon as Mr. Morrill concluded. The Colorado senator referred scornfully to the assertion of Mr. Morrill that there was not a Republican majority in the senate. That was a fact that had long been understood. This statement, said Mr. Teller, came with a motion out of time and out of place, to proceed with the tariff bill. Further accounts have come to hand of the massacre of Armenians. The report has a ready concurrence. But for us to adjourn with these deficiencies accruing more and more, as I say, not a manly action to be taken by either of the great parties, or by any party that is responsible for it."

Mr. Harris asked: "Why does not the senator from Ohio advise the treasury department to coin the $55,000,000 of seigniorage and the balance of the silver that lies in the treasury idle and utilize it to answer the purpose of the treasury?"

Mr. Sherman replied: "That has been tried and tested, and if ever that question met its final solution it was in the house of representatives freshly elected by the people, whereby a majority of almost 2 to 1, the judgment of the house of representatives, the representatives of the people from equal and exact districts throughout the country, pronounced their denunciation of the most foolish and dangerous policy of departing from the now lawful standards of money in the country."

Senators Platt and Aldrich, in answer to direct questions from Senator Allen, announced emphatically that the Republicans would not accept a tariff bill with a free silver attachment.

Mr. Frye (Rep., Me.) took the floor and declared that the tariff bill was dead as Julius Caesar. Business interests demanded that the statement be made emphatically that the bill was dead. He hoped it would never be heard from again and that the responsibility should rest where it belonged.

Mr. Morgan then resumed his speech on the Cuban resolutions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The treasury statement shows the gold reserve to be $123,522,378. Of this amount $91,685,706 represents the aggregate in gold paid for bonds to date. The amount of bonds issued, however, is only $70,650,050, of which $43,418,650 are in coupons and $27,237,400 in registered, the balance being held on call from the purchasers. The total amount of the deferred gold payments, therefore is only about $20,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The coast defense committee has decided to amend the bill for a system of fortifications so as to expend $10,000,000 by June 30, 1897, but making any part of that sum at once available. The bill was also amended so as to allow contracts for the completion of all projects and appropriations to be made annually of $10,000,000 for the work.

THE RUSH COMMENCED

MAYER'S CATARRH TREATMENT

Which is Being Furnished Free—Men, Women and Children Have Called to Receive Its Benefits—All Say "I Have Never Seen Anything That Worked Like This."

Right here we wish to impress upon you that Mayer's Catarrh Cure is so different from any other remedy.

Mayer's Cure is not an inhaler that you simply put up into the nose and smell its contents, and after a week or two has lost its strength and you have to buy another inhaler. With Mayer's Cure you do not take any medicine into the stomach; it reaches the affected parts directly. When buying Mayer's Cure you buy only the catarrh cure and don't have to buy a lot of pills and blood medicine to help it along. Mayer's Vapor Inhaler does the work by itself—absolutely guaranteed.

Our great offer—free this week to men, women and children.

Do you work in the pottery, glass house or flint mill, or any place where you find the dust affects your lungs? Mayer asks you to call at W. O. Hamilton's, where we will give you almost instant relief. To sufferers from catarrh, cold in the head, bronchitis, sore throat and deafness, we invite all to test this cure before buying any other remedy. Trial free for this week only at W. O. Hamilton's pharmacy.

WONDERFUL WORK OF GOD.

Items of Deep Interest to Our Young People's Societies.

By request of a large number of the members of the young people's societies of East Liverpool, the NEWS REVIEW will republish some items of special interest under the above heading, for the next few issues:

"Nearly everyone knows the story of William Carey, of England. He was a dealer in second hand shoes who, as he mended the shoes he had bought, constantly thought of the millions of people who had never heard of Christ, and constantly studied to fit himself to preach. After he was licensed to preach in a small and poor church, he had to teach in order to earn a living for his family. Finally he was sent to India as a missionary. But the church at home did not seem to care whether he lived or died. He suffered from fever, poverty, persecution and had to work in an Indigo factory to support his wife (who was insane for 12 years) and his children. As he had opportunity, he went out and preached through the cities and villages. A printing press, which he set up in a corner of the factory, was thought to be his God by the idol worshippers who were his companions in the factory. But on this printing press, of his own making, he translated the entire Bible into several dialects, and parts of it into 40 different dialects. His printing office was destroyed by fire, and he lost everything that he had, including his translations, but he felt that God sent him to Bengal to give the Bible to the natives, so he went to work at his translations again, although it took him seven months to make new ones. Finally, though unappreciated by the church at home, while still serving as a missionary, the British government paid him two hundred thousand dollars for work. He sent one dollar a week to poor relatives at home, lived on another dollar a week, and gave all the rest that he earned from the British government to carry on his missionary work. He labored for seven years before winning his first convert; yet before his death he had translated the Bible for three hundred and eighty thousand people."

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's pain balm, and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. WEDDING BELLS.

Two Couples Joined Together in Wedding.

Charles W. Pilgrim and Miss Maud Buchelt, daughter of John Buchelt, of Sixth street, were united in marriage this afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist Protestant church by Reverend Whitehead. The happy young couple will make their home for the present with the bride's parents.

Another wedding was also solemnized. W. J. McCormick, a potter employed at Sebring's, and Miss Jeanette Mills, of Third street, were also wedded by Reverend Whitehead at the home of the bride last night.

POSTPONED.

The Revival Meetings Will not Start on Sunday.

Owing to a change made by Evangelist Schiviera in his dates, he will not arrive in this city until next Wednesday. The meetings, however, will begin on Monday evening, and will be conducted by Reverends Lee and Taggart. The churches will all hold their regular services on Sunday night. The committee have made arrangements with a solo singer, who will conduct the music during the revival. Financial aid is being very generously donated, and every preparation is being made to make the meetings a success.

WILL READ IT.

The Bible Will Again be Read by the Teachers.

One teacher, who was ordered to discontinue the use of the Bible in the schools, complied with the request for the time being. Influence being brought to bear, she was prevailed upon, as a matter of principle, to take up the Bible again and continue the use of the book in the future, as in the past, regardless of consequences that might follow. The stand that the teachers are now taking deserves commendation and the citizens should show their appreciation of this attitude for right.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Will Attend the McKinley Club Thursday Night.

The Republican party and the relation of it to the tariff is the subject that will be discussed at the McKinley club next Thursday night. A. H. Clark will deliver a well prepared address on this subject, and a number of other local and a few prominent county men will be present and also speak. A warm invitation is extended to all Republicans to be present at the meeting.

Off For Idaho.

Mrs. Mason Campbell, of Idaho, yesterday visited her aunt, Mrs. Harry Palmer, 189 Elm street. Mrs. Campbell left for Youngstown today, where she will join her husband and child, and from that point the trio will start for their far distant home in the famous mining regions, where silver and lead are mined in immense quantities. Owing to the present trouble over the silver problem, Mrs. Campbell states that the lead mines are much more valuable to the owners than are the silver mines.

A Des Moines woman who has been troubled with frequent colds, concluded to try an old remedy in a new way, and accordingly took a tablespoonful (four times the usual dose) of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy just before going to bed. The next morning she found that her cold had almost entirely disappeared. During the day she took a few doses of the remedy (one teaspoonful at a time) and at night again took a tablespoonful before going to bed, and on the following morning awoke free from all symptoms of the cold. Since then she has, on several occasions, used this remedy in like manner, with the same good results, and is much elated over her discovery of so quick a way of curing a cold. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

All members of the McKinley club are hereby notified to be present at a special meeting of the club, Thursday evening, Feb. 17. All Republicans are invited to be present. Good county and local speakers will be in attendance.

Dragged by a Car.

Last night as car No. 2, in charge of Motorman Matt Friend, was living on the Sixth street switch, waiting for the west bound car to pass it, a lady got up and started to get off. The motorman started his car at the same time, and the lady was thrown off her feet and dragged for a short distance. Fortunately a bystander saw the occurrence and waved to the motorman to stop. The lady was assisted to her feet, and was found to be uninjured, although very badly frightened.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment.

The Young Men's Christian association have substituted the Swedish Quartet, with Miss Jennie Shoemaker, impersonator and Delsartean, and Miss Bertha Webb, violinist, for the Stanton-Harris entertainment, because of the continued illness of Mr. Stanton. They appear at the Grand Opera House tomorrow evening. This gives to the patrons a much stronger attraction than had been anticipated.

The Way to Eat Candy.

I think much of the outcry against candy is the result of wrong methods of use. It can often be safely taken at meal time with good results. Scientists say that the food value of sugar is very great. A pound of sugar contains much more energy and power to support animal life than a pound of meat. If candy is taken under such conditions that it will not derange the digestive apparatus, it is perfectly wise and rational to be a candy eater.—Annals of Hygiene.

A Change of Occupation.

John Wolfe, of Cadmus street, and a kiln hand employed at Goodwin's pottery, has exchanged his property here in the city for the farm formerly owned by Clark Moore, about two miles from the city, on the Lisbon road. Mr. Wolfe will move his family out in a few weeks, and change his occupation from potting to farming.

Died This Morning.

Washington Arnold, of the East End, died this morning after a lingering illness with lung trouble. Deceased will be buried in Riverview cemetery, Friday. Funeral services will probably be held in the Presbyterian church. Deceased was well known and lived with his parents in Helena.

O. W. G. Hardman, sheriff of Tyler county, W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." HE LOVES THE BIRDS.

FRANCOIS COPPEE AND HIS FRIENDS IN THE JARDIN DU LUXEMBOURG.

It is a Teaching Sight to Watch the Feet Feed His Poet in a Public Garden—A Man Who is Loved by All and is "Dear Master" to the Students.

Francois Coppee, the author of "For the King," has a great many friends in Paris, but none of them is more devoted than the little birds that live in the Jardin du Luxembourg. They know him as soon as they see him, come in at one of the wide gates, his shoulders drooping, his head hanging forward, his face pale from ill health. They know in just which one of his pockets he carries the big piece of bread which he is going to divide into crumbs for their benefit, and they probably say in their own special language:

"Ah, here is Friend Coppee, bless him!"

They are not the only ones that know what Coppee has in his pocket. All the Latin quarter people who come and go through that corner of the Luxembourg garden which faces the Odéon know that the gentle author rarely misses a day in his devotion to the birds. And when he appears with a peculiar swollen appearance about one of his pockets they draw quietly off to a respectful distance to watch.

As soon as the circle of spectators—workmen in blue blouses, students in corduroy and slouch hats, nursemaids with bareheaded children—as soon as these elements, which might possibly, be disturbing, have taken themselves far enough out of the way, the birds close in around the poet until sometimes a hundred of them will be fluttering about his head or hopping about his feet. Then he takes out his piece of bread and crumbing off one corner tosses a morsel up in the air. Instantly there is a flutter of wings, and two or three of the birds dart upward, and the most fortunate one catches the crumb in its flight and settles down again to his place in the flock.

One crumb after another is thrown out in this direction and that, and occasionally a few are scattered on the ground, so that the less adventurous and weaker spirits may have their share. Finally a good fat crumb is pinched off, but not thrown. It is held invitingly between the thumb and finger, while the poet looks at his birds as much as to say:

"Come, come. You know your friend Coppee. Give me a proof of your affection, as I am giving you a proof of mine."

There is a great flutter then among the birds, a great cocking of pretty heads, much sharp glancing of bright eyes. Finally one particularly brave little creature makes a wide curve toward the imprisoned crumb, but his courage deserts him on the way, and he circles back to his place without the prize. Coppee rubs the crumb a little, so that a tiny morsel of it falls to the ground, where it is quickly picked up. It is as if he said to his small flock:

"See, my little friends, it is a good crumb. Where is your confidence? Have I ever betrayed you?"

As if ashamed of having hesitated so long, a bird makes a dart toward the outstretched hand, poses with fluttering wings above it, picks daintily at the crumb and then bears it away triumphantly in its bill. After that it all goes merry as a marriage bell. Two or three birds will be eating from his hand at the same time. They light on his shoulder, on his arm, on his hat.

The spectators meanwhile are full of breathless interest. A child whose loud cry of delight startled the birds into sudden flight is unconsciously jerked back by his nurse with an emphatic "Tais-toi." The students talk in an undertone about the dear master, as they call Coppee.

Last winter, when there was an unusual amount of snow in Paris, Coppee was particularly attentive to the wants of his birds, which in their turn were more than ever appreciative of his good offices, for the snow made pretty poor picking for them. And on cold days it was no uncommon sight to see the students rush up to the poet after he had finished his dole and turn up his coat collar or tighten his muffler or button his overcoat.

"Dear master," they would say affectionately, "you must be more careful of yourself. You know you are not strong, and it is cold, and we need you as much as the birds do."

To the birds and the students he is always "the dear master." It was Coppee who wrote and read the poem for the unveiling of the bust of Henri Murger in that same Jardin du Luxembourg. Murger's name is idolized by the whole Latin quarter, and it is doubtful if the students would have permitted any one of whom they did not approve to take part in the ceremonies at the unveiling of his monument.

Coppee is not married, although, in French fashion, he has a friend to whom he makes mysterious references in his writings as one who is dear to him and in whose heart he knows he will leave inconsolable regret when he dies. However that may be, he will be sure of plenty of sincere mourners—the students of the Latin quarter and the birds of the Jardin du Luxembourg.—New York Sun.

A stranger came riding by, and seeing the care the farmer was taking said to him, "You seem to be mighty careful about that wall." "Yep," replied the farmer, "I'm er building her to stay." "Tain't no use," replied the stranger, "it'll blow over just the same." "Waal, let her blow over, she'll be a foot higher if she does," replied the farmer, continuing his work.—San Francisco Argonaut.

THE RUSH COMMENCED

MAYER'S CATARRH TREATMENT

Which is Being Furnished Free—Men, Women and Children Have Called to Receive Its Benefits—All Say "I Have Never Seen Anything That Worked Like This."

Right here we wish to impress upon you that Mayer's Catarrh Cure is so different from any other remedy.

Mayer's Cure is not an inhaler that you simply put up into the nose and smell its contents, and after a week or two has lost its strength and you have to buy another inhaler. With Mayer's Cure you do not take any medicine into the stomach; it reaches the affected parts directly. When buying Mayer's Cure you buy only the catarrh cure and don't have to buy a lot of pills and blood medicine to help it along. Mayer's Vapor Inhaler does the work by itself—absolutely guaranteed.

Our great offer—free this week to men, women and children.

Do you work in the pottery, glass house or flint mill, or any place where you find the dust affects your lungs? Mayer asks you to call at W. O. Hamilton's, where we will give you almost instant relief. To sufferers from catarrh, cold in the head, bronchitis, sore throat and deafness, we invite all to test this cure before buying any other remedy. Trial free for this week only at W. O. Hamilton's pharmacy.

WONDERFUL WORK OF GOD.

Items of Deep Interest to Our Young People's Societies.

By request of a large number of the members of the young people's societies of East Liverpool, the News Review will republish some items of special interest, under the above heading, for the next few issues:

"Nearly everyone knows the story of William Carey, of England. He was a dealer in second hand shoes who, as he mended the shoes he had bought, constantly thought of the millions of people who had never heard of Christ, and constantly studied to fit himself to preach. After he was licensed to preach in a small and poor church, he had to teach in order to earn a living for his family. Finally he was sent to India as a missionary. But the church at home did not seem to care whether he lived or died. He suffered from fever, poverty, persecution and had to work in an indigo factory to support his wife (who was insane for 12 years) and his children. As he had opportunity, he went out and preached through the cities and villages. A printing press, which he set up in a corner of the factory, was thought to be his God by the idol worshippers who were his companions in the factory. But on this printing press, of his own making, he translated the entire Bible into several dialects, and parts of it into 40 different dialects. His printing office was destroyed by fire, and he lost everything that he had, including his translations, but he felt that God sent him to Bengal to give the Bible to the natives, so he went to work at his translations again, although it took him seven months to make new ones. Finally, though unappreciated by the church at home, while still serving as a missionary, the British government paid him two hundred thousand dollars for work. He sent one dollar a week to poor relatives at home, lived on another dollar a week, and gave all the rest that he earned from the British government to carry on his missionary work. He labored for seven years before winning his first convert; yet before his death he had translated the Bible for three hundred and eighty thousand people."

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's pain balm, and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. WEDDING BELLS.

Two Couples Joined Together in Wedding.

Charles W. Pilgrim and Miss Maude Buchert, daughter of John Buchert, of Sixth street, were united in marriage this afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist Protestant church by Reverend Whitehead. The happy young couple will make their home for the present with the bride's parents.

Another wedding was also solemnized. W. J. McCormick, a potter employed at Sebring's, and Miss Jeanette Mills, of Third street, were also wedded by Reverend Whitehead at the home of the bride last night.

POSTPONED.

The Revival Meetings Will not Start on Sunday.

Owing to a change made by Evangelist Schiverea in his dates, he will not arrive in this city until next Wednesday. The meetings, however, will begin on Monday evening, and will be conducted by Reverends Lee and Taggart. The churches will all hold their regular services on Sunday night. The committee have made arrangements with a solo singer, who will conduct the music during the revival. Financial aid is being very generously donated, and every preparation is being made to make the meetings a success.

WILL READ IT.

The Bible Will Again be Read by the Teachers.

One teacher, who was ordered to discontinue the use of the Bible in the schools, complied with the request for the time being. Influence being brought to bear, she was prevailed upon, as a matter of principle, to take up the Bible again and continue the use of the book in the future, as in the past, regardless of consequences that might follow. The stand that the teachers are now taking deserves commendation and the citizens should show their appreciation of this attitude for right.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Will Attend the McKinley Club Thursday Night.

The Republican party and the relation of it to the tariff is the subject that will be discussed at the McKinley club next Thursday night. A. H. Clark will deliver a well prepared address on this subject, and a number of other local and a few prominent county men will be present and also speak. A warm invitation is extended to all Republicans to be present at the meeting.

OF FOR IDAHO.

Mrs. Mason Campbell, of Idaho, yesterday visited her aunt, Mrs. Harry Palmer, 189 Elm street. Mrs. Campbell left for Youngstown today, where she will join her husband and child, and from that point the trio will start for their far distant home in the famous mining regions, where silver and lead are mined in immense quantities. Owing to the present trouble over the silver problem, Mrs. Campbell states that the lead mines are much more valuable to the owners than are the silver mines.

A Des Moines woman who has been troubled with frequent colds, concluded to try an old remedy in a new way, and accordingly took a tablespoonful (four times the usual dose) of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy just before going to bed. The next morning she found that her cold had almost entirely disappeared. During the day she took a few doses of the remedy (one teaspoonful at a time) and at night again took a tablespoonful before going to bed, and on the following morning awoke free from all symptoms of the cold. Since then she has, on several occasions, used this remedy in like manner, with the same good results, and is much elated over her discovery of so quick a way of curing a cold. For sale by A. H. Dropped by a Car.

Last night as car No. 3, in charge of Motorman Matt Friend, was living on the Sixth street switch, waiting for the west bound car to pass it, a lady got up and started to get off. The motorman started his car at the same time, and the lady was thrown off her feet and dragged for a short distance. Fortunately a bystander saw the occurrence and warned to the motorman to stop. The lady was assisted to her feet, and was found to be uninjured, although very badly frightened.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment.

The Young Men's Christian association have substituted the Swedish Quartet, with Miss Jennie Shoemaker, impersonator and Delsartean, and Miss Bertha Webb, violinist, for the Stanton-Harris entertainment, because of the continued illness of Mr. Stanton. They appear at the Grand Opera House tomorrow evening. This gives to the patrons a much stronger attraction than had been anticipated.

The Way to Eat Candy.

I think much of the outcry against candy is the result of wrong methods of use. It can often be safely taken at meal time with good results. Scientists say that the food value of sugar is very great. A pound of sugar contains much more energy and power to support animal life than a pound of meat. If candy is taken under such conditions that it will not derange the digestive apparatus, it is perfectly wise and rational to be a candy eater.—Annals of Hygiene.

A Change of Occupation.

John Wolfe, of Cadmus street, and a kiln hand employed at Goodwin's pottery, has exchanged his property here in the city for the farm formerly owned by Clark Moore, about two miles from the city, on the Lisbon road. Mr. Wolfe will move his family out in a few weeks, and change his occupation from potting to farming.

Died This Morning.

Washington Arnold, of the East End, died this morning after a lingering illness with lung trouble. Deceased will be buried in Riverview cemetery, Friday. Funeral services will probably be held in the Presbyterian church. Deceased was well known and lived with his parents in Helena.

O. W. G. Hardman, sheriff of Tyler county, W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I did it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds."
